Weddings are where life for Lavender Green Flowers first began. Nearly three decades and countless celebrations later, we love that the same thoughtful care and attention continues to play such a crucial role in making our couples' wedding day truly beautiful, and highly personal. Our specialist weddings team, led by Owner and Creative Director, Sue Barnes, share a passion for providing the highest quality seasonal flowers through intricate designs and details. With collective experience within the wider wedding industry and fantastic relationships with countless venues, planners and other suppliers, our team are perfectly placed to understand every aspect of your day.

OUR BROGESS

Imagination, dedication and discretion, are just some of the reasons why people entrust us to bring their vision to life; they also choose us because we give them peace of mind. We use photography and mood boards to help couples visualise how their flowers will look and produce a bespoke sketch of the bride so she can be assured the style and dimensions of the bouquet will marry with her dress perfectly.

Once we have designed the perfect bespoke wedding party flowers for you, it's time to walk through every step of your special day. Using our expert knowledge of major venues and building on your own ideas and colour schemes, we work with you to create designs that will put your own unique stamp onto the existing features. We aren't here to take over your venue entirely – rather, to recommend exactly what is needed to provide the backdrops to the photos that will forever live on your mantelpiece.

Rooted in creative design, each brief we take incorporates fashion, style and architectural references. These taste and trend elements all feed into the final inspiration for the flowers, foliage and hardware for your big day. Consultation done, our specialist weddings team pull everything into a shopping list style proposal with imagery, descriptions and prices for each suggested design. With this in hand, the vision for your wedding flowers becomes a reality!

With the designs agreed and the finest quality stems, buds and containers selected, it's then down to our talented florists and production team to recreate and safely deliver every last detail on the day. Your specialist wedding designer will oversee the creation of all of the designs, ensuring that each

Your wedding designer will also be present on the day for the installation of your bespoke designs. All that is left is to enjoy your life as a married couple and stay in touch! We love to hear your wedding stories and see your wonderful

DONATIONS

While your wedding flowers will live on forever in memories and photographs, any designs that you do not wish to keep are taken back to our Windsor warehouse post-event and donated to our network of local charities and organisations, including hospices, schools and shelters.

This is a huge part of our ongoing sustainability initiative, aimed at supporting the local community, spreading joy, wellness and education. All suitable flowers are used in hospices to decorate bedrooms and are used in floral workshops. Schools make use of your flowers in biology lessons through to activity sessions for toddlers or are made into bouquets to thank teachers and sold by PTAs to raise important funds. They are often gifted to new families who have arrived in the area having fled domestic violence and given to our elderly neighbours who live in sheltered housing. It is not only fantastic to be able to support so many people, but as a direct result of this service, our waste has reduced by 70%, meaning that our carbon footprint has also reduced dramatically. This service is totally free of charge and we aim to let you know where your flowers went within a few days.

If you are concerned about event waste, this provides a method to ensure that you can still have your dream flowers on your wedding day. We will also keep you updated on where your flowers ended up and what it meant for the community you helped.

OUR TEAM

Your bespoke designs will be created by the dedicated florists and designers here at Lavender Green Flowers, then delivered in our fleet of vehicles by our very own expert installation team. From enquiry to venue, we ensure your vision is met swiftly and seamlessly.
